

David Seay instructs a member of the audience how to play a miniature harmonica. (Republican photo)

The hammer dulcimer, here played by both musicians, was the forerunner of the piano. (Republican photo)

Greenblatt and Seay entertain under the tent

By CAROLYN LEE
THE IMPERIAL REPUBLICAN

The husband and wife team of Debbie Greenblatt and David Seay tickled the crowd with both their humor, lyrics and music during a performance under the tent during the 125th celebration in Imperial Saturday.

The duo from Avoca, Neb., played a hammer dulcimer, five-string viola, banjo, guitar, recorders and tin whistles during the afternoon. They performed old favorites such as "Ragtime Annie," "Soldier's Joy," "William Tell Overture," "Sailor's Hornpipe" and "Oh Susannah/Camptown Races," as well as original songs written by themselves.

The presentation was funded in part by a grant from the Nebraska Arts Council.

